TWENTIETH ANNUAL REPORT OF TOC H
1940

THE OBJECTS OF TOC H

The aims of Toc H are thus set forth in its Royal Charter of Incorporation :—

(1) To preserve amongst men and to transmit to future generations, the traditions of fellowship and service manifested by all ranks during the Great War, thereby encouraging its members, through the common Christian life of the family, to seek God, and helping them to find His Will and to do it.

(2) To encourage amongst the members of the Association the desire to perform, and to facilitate the performance of, all kinds of social service as between and for the benefit of all ranks of society.

(3) To promote among all people a wide human interest in the lives and needs of their fellows and to foster in every man a sense of responsibility for the well-being of his fellow man.

(4) To mitigate by habit of mind and word and deed the evils of class consciousness and to endeavour to create a body of public opinion free of all social antagonisms.

THE FOUR POINTS OF THE COMPASS

A statement of the aims of Toc H, originally drawn up in 1920, and revised in 1936.

I. FELLOWSHIP—"To Love Widely"

To found and maintain throughout the world Groups, Branches and Houses for the fostering of a true spirit of understanding between man and man.

The members thus brought together meet regularly as a family, sharing in the common ways of life and exhibiting by the diversity of their origin, occupation and outlook a spirit of reconciliation between men of all kinds.

Members are called upon—

To foster a wide human interest in the lives and needs of their fellows.

To welcome and to seek the well-being of those commended to their friendship.

To lessen by habit of thought, word and deed the prejudices which separate men.

II. SERVICE—"To Build Bravely"

To make of these Groups, Branches and Houses centres from which men of all conditions may serve their fellows. Their task is not to compete with existing organisations but to supplement and reinforce them.

Members are called upon—

To give personal service.

To study local and international conditions and their effect on men's lives.

To challenge their generation to seek the Will of Christ in the solution of all problems.

As one means to this end, to make possible a Staff which shall serve the movement as a whole in its world-wide adventure for the Kingdom of God.

III. FAIRMINDEDNESS—"To Think Fairly"

To bring the expert to the unit, hearing him and asking him questions; to listen hospitably and humbly to everyman's story, and to help the truth to prevail.

Members are called upon—

To find their own convictions, to influence the formation of public opinion, and thus to replace social and racial antagonisms by intelligent understanding.

IV. THE KINGDOM OF GOD—"To Witness Humbly"

To spread the Gospel without preaching it.

Members are called upon—

To recognise the spiritual nature of Man, and to demonstrate that a life of Fellowship, Service and Fairmindedness bears better witness than any spoken word.

A LETTER FROM LORD HALIFAX

The Task of Toc H Members in War-time

TO THE EDITOR OF "THE TIMES."

SIR,—As one of the presidents of Toc H I want to call attention to its particular functions in the present emergency. An old play upon the letters of its name produced for Toc H the motto "To conquer hate," and it is perhaps the foremost task of all Toc H members to foster this spirit now. If our nation can prosecute and finish the work we are in without hatred it will have helped incalculably towards a victory of Christian principle, the only sure basis of eventual peace.

The first object of Toc H, as defined by Royal Charter, is "to preserve amongst men and to transmit to future generations the traditions of fellowship and service manifested by all ranks" during the last War, in which the movement found its origin. This object has been actively pursued by its members all over the world during the past 20 years in a great variety of ways which are familiar to the public. The spirit of this work does not change, but its methods are now being adapted to war conditions.

Toc H is, of course, making its full contribution of men both to the fighting Services and to all forms of civil defence. These men will find supreme opportunities for preserving and transmitting "traditions of fellowship and service." Besides direct national service of this kind, Toc H is discovering and using a great many opportunities to serve the men of the Navy, Army, and Air Force, the civil defence workers, the evacuated population, and indeed anyone in need of friendship. Its 25 residential houses and numerous local meeting places in this country and oversea are providing premises for such work day and night, and its available membership is being mobilized to carry it on.

I regard the varied work which Toc H has been doing since the last War as the best possible training for what it is now undertaking, and the simple methods it has evolved during those years as a great asset now. I am confident that it will not fail to make its full contribution, in spirit and in action, in the time of our need.

Yours faithfully,

HALIFAX.

ANNUAL REPORT

IN 1915 Talbot House Poperinghe was started to meet the needs of men in war. In 1939 Toc H, sprung from that beginning in Flanders, is facing once again the same needs. This report therefore must needs differ from all its predecessors since Toc H became incorporated by Royal Charter in 1922. It deals, and rightly deals, not with the detailed work of Toc H prior to September 3rd, 1939, but with its response to the utterly new situation created by war.

Hampton Court. Regarding the period preceding the war it must suffice to state summarily that the work of the movement at home and overseas was going steadily forward. A special source of encouragement to its members was the gracious presence of Her Majesty the Queen at the Toc H Garden Party held by the King's permission at Hampton Court Palace in July. A large gathering of members and friends gave Her Majesty a great welcome. As a result of the Garden Party a sum of £5,780 was given during the year, while a further £6,000 was promised under deeds of covenant, all of which was to be applied, at Her Majesty's desire, to reducing the accumulated deficit of the movement. As a result both of continued economy and of fresh efforts by members and friends it was confidently anticipated that the income and expenditure for the year would balance. Unfortunately this expectation was upset by the disturbance to ordinary life in September and October, and the year finally ended with a deficit of £1,203 19s. 11d. As the accounts are published in detail and, considered in conjunction with the comparative figures for the previous year, show the position clearly, it has been thought permissible, in present circumstances, to dispense with the normal report on the year's financial working.

* * * *

War Policy. Ten days after the outbreak of war the Central Executive met and decided that the clear duty laid upon Toc H was first to apply its power of bringing men together and creating an atmosphere of friendship and confidence wherever it could make available the plant and men to meet the special needs of war, and, secondly, to do everything possible to keep alive in its members the family sense, and to encourage them to maintain and spread the Toc H spirit of helpfulness, fair thinking and the avoidance of bitterness as widely and as deeply as they could. With the efforts that have been made to achieve these objects, with our hopes and plans, this report has now to deal.

Services Clubs It was natural that the first demand which came upon Toc H was to do all it could for men of the three Services. In some places where Militia camps and R.A.F. stations were springing up before the war, Toc H was already planning to meet their needs. The embodiment of the Territorial Army and the steady growth of the number of men in training multiplied this need from comparatively few places to a very large number of towns and villages. The blackout, the taking over of buildings, the placing of numbers of men in billets, all added to the need and at the same time increased the difficulty of meeting it. In many places Toc H responded with a will. The first effort was often to open the Toc H room so many nights a week, members taking turns to act as hosts. Frequently this was soon crowded out, larger premises had to be taken and a Toc H Services Club begun. Many such are now firmly established. In other places through the initiative of Toc H, a Community Services Club has been set up in which Toc H members work in partnership with other organisations. In others again, where the premises of existing organisations sufficed, Toc H has found its work in supplying part of the constant stream of helpers needed to man them. In all there are now over 200 known places in which Toc H units have opened or are largely responsible for the manning of clubs and centres.

Larger Centres. It very soon became apparent that there were some places where the need was so great that the effort of local units could not meet it unaided. Here Houses or Clubs have been brought into being under the auspices or with the help of Toc H headquarters; premises have been taken and equipped, a member of the staff or a specially appointed Warden placed in charge. Once a start has been made, a valuable amount of support has usually been forthcoming from the local community, including the ungrudging help of many splendid women. Localities must not be named, but it can be stated that the Houses already open serve an embarkation port, R.A.F. stations, Naval ports and military training centres. Other Houses are being planned to serve all three Services.

Orkney. Meanwhile in Orkney Tubby has been hard at work meeting the needs of Naval and auxiliary personnel engaged in the hard and dangerous work of the sea patrols. He has gathered round him a team of helpers including Patrick Sutherland Graeme, late Chairman of the Central Executive, and established a considerable organisation which is being used to the full. It would be hard to imagine any spot where men need Toc H more desperately or respond to it more gladly. The Central Executive has thought it right to promise a grant of £750 in support of this work.

The B.E.F. Now in 1940 comes the next step. For some time news has been coming in of Toc H members in France, both in the Army and the R.A.F., getting together and planning to use their own leisure to provide for their comrades a place of friendship on Toc H lines. All this has been unofficial but very encouraging. The first official Toc H team, consisting of Padre Pat Leonard, Rex Calkin, Grahame Hamilton and R. H. Staton, wearing for the first time in history Toc H uniform, have opened the first House in a forward area and have the second already in view. The team has of course gone with the sanction of the War Office and with the backing of an Advisory Committee consisting of Field Marshal the Earl of Cavan, Sir Herbert Creedy, General Sir Charles Harington, General Sir Reginald May and Bishop Neville Talbot.

The Aim of Toc H in all this. In all these efforts what is Toc H aiming at? The answer is that it is trying to do its own particular job. It is not spreading itself over the wide field of welfare work, entering into competition with the Y.M.C.A. and other great organisations. Between the headquarters of Toc H and the other societies concerned cordial relations exist, and Toc H is represented by Arthur Edgar on the Council for Voluntary War Work which exists to see that each organisation is used in the way and in the place where it can best serve the troops. Toc H is tackling, under the new conditions of modern war, precisely what it is called upon to tackle by its Royal Charter—

"To preserve amongst men and to transmit to future generations the traditions of fellowship and service manifested by all ranks during the Great War, thereby encouraging its members, through the common Christian life of the Association, to seek God, and helping them to find His will and to do it."

Its methods are, as throughout its history, directed to the individual, to offer him such store as it has of friendship, service and fairness of mind, and to invite him to become himself a spreader of these qualities and so to share in the adventure of the Kingdom of God.

Toc H Passes. The contacts which it is making are not ephemeral. A system of Toc H Passes has been instituted which are not only a passport to friendship but will be the means by which in due time the part of Toc H in building the new world after the war will be enormously strengthened by a fresh foundation of men who, like their predecessors in 1914-18, have won their understanding of its meaning in the fires of war.

Civil Needs. Pride of place has rightly been given in this report to the developments of Toc H in the Services. But it would be wrong to think that other needs have been neglected. As much as possible of normal peace-time service goes on, and in addition in many places the care and entertainment of evacuee children have been taken in hand. In Coventry a house has been opened for young industrial workers doing their part in the nation's effort far from home. This is but a start; there is far more than we can yet attempt waiting to be done in this sphere.

The Service of Truth. Nor has Toc H neglected, in this hour when every man must know where he stands, its task of helping men to think straight and to think fair. A series of papers designed to help discussion, to encourage true appreciation of the facts, and to bid men not to limit their vision to the day but to make ready for the tasks of the future, has begun to issue from headquarters, and there is evidence that through these and through the JOURNAL, morale is being helped and ideals upheld.

War-time Organisation. Of the working of Toc H under war conditions, it must be said that it has been the policy of the Executive to make every possible economy in the peace-time organisation. In most Areas the work of the Area Secretary or Padre has been gallantly undertaken by a small team of volunteers. Machinery has been simplified, District Teams have been trusted to increase their responsibility, and are rising to the task. By shouldering these duties the members concerned have enabled the staff, very considerably reduced both at headquarters and in the country, to concentrate on the thought and action that the war effort of the movement requires. As the list in the report shows, a certain number of staff men have been retained as Regional Officers, covering a wide territory and available, so far as transport allows, to visit and advise Toc H in the various localities about its war work. Others are concentrating on the development of Clubs or Houses.

The Marks. In this connection, the situation of the peace-time Marks varies. Some temporary closures have been necessitated by the movement of commerce and industry, and have been faced rather than allow the considerable losses, which would otherwise have resulted, to impede the main effort of Toc H. Others are still as much needed as in peace and for much the same work, though some have been able to offer friendship and hospitality to civil defence personnel. Others are so placed as to be able to perform just the kind of work for the Services which has been described earlier in the report, or to meet the needs of Officer Cadets on leave or of relations on their way to visit casualties in the B.E.F.

Seafaring Boys. 'Talbot House Seafaring Boys' Club at Southampton, though the regular routine of the boys it serves has naturally been upset by the war, finds more than enough work on its hands. Over 50, some direct from sea that day, sat down to dinner on Christmas Day and 100 were somehow squeezed in for the night. Many old boys, serving to-day in the Royal Navy as well as on Merchant ships, keep in regular touch with the Warden.

Overseas. A very few words must suffice to draw into the picture the widespread growth of Toc H overseas. The Toc H Houses at Gibraltar and Malta (the latter just changing its location to meet changed conditions) maintain their work. Richard Dines, the Warden of the Malta House, has been transferred to another place where Naval needs are for the moment paramount, and has been welcomed as a fresh strength to the work of a large Naval club. From the Dominions comes regular news of Toc H standards maintained and a readiness to meet new needs as they arise. Canada is tackling the opportunity and the need presented by the Empire Air Training Scheme. Southern Africa, where Toc H realises its tremendous responsibilities as a unifying agent in the nation's life, has also found time to plan to make Toc H useful in the training camps. In Rhodesia it is responsible for the canteens of the Defence Force Camps. Australia and New Zealand are each playing their part in ways appropriate to their country's effort. The Argentine Council has sent a generous contribution of £200 to war needs at home besides carrying on its own most important work of demonstrating Toc H and so promoting its growth in a friendly land. Of what is happening in the scattered Lone Units of Toc H throughout the world, all that can be said is that each and all are ready to face whatever demand war makes upon them. Upon some war has already made direct calls for service. Others, more remote, are maintaining their normal work, remembering their brother members in the war zone and helping their work in any way possible.

Unity of Spirit. Such, in brief review, is the kind of way in which Toc H is responding to the challenge of war. When on December 11 last the World Chain of Light was started in Christchurch, New Zealand, it may safely be said that the men who stood to their Lamps round the circuit of the globe did so with a greater sense than ever before of the reality of their unity. Plain men see with clear eyes that on their generation has fallen the challenge of a philosophy of life and action that denies all things Christian. Toc H, being what it is and knowing upon what it is based, is resolute to play its part in proving that behind the ebb and flow of things temporal stand the eternal realities. Here Toc H stands. So help it God, it can do no other.

* * * *

The Sinews of War. The warfare that Toc H is waging depends first, under God, upon the hearts and minds of men. Those are ready. But it would be futile not to recognise that if the effort is to be all that it should be there is urgent need for the sinews of war.

The ordinary resources of Toc H are plainly unequal to the task. The members are doing their utmost to maintain their contributions, and the urgency of this needs no stressing. A widespread scheme of War Chest Boxes has been launched and is beginning to produce, as is intended, a large number of small rivulets to swell the stream. The Executive has decided that rather than refuse the challenge all the free resources of Toc H must, if need be, be expended. This, if it had to be, would cripple the movement for many years ahead, and even so would not suffice.

A National Service and a National Challenge.

Accordingly a strong Toc H War Services Committee has been set up to plan for the task before us. It is setting to work with a will. It has decided that for the national work Toc H is now called upon to do a sum of fifty thousand pounds is required. It begs that everyone into whose hands this report comes will take the challenge to himself and, whether his response can be small or large, will make some extra effort to enable Toc H to carry through the work it can and must undertake. It is building not for the day, but for the future, not for its own needs but for the needs of the world. It must be enabled to go forward.

THE HON. ADMINISTRATOR

At the end of February Hubert Secretan, who served in the Ministry of Shipping in the last War, received an invitation from that Ministry to rejoin its staff. The call was of a nature so urgent that it could not lightly be refused, and Hubert considered it his duty to accept an appointment for which personal qualifications and past experience especially fit him. He felt bound, therefore, to relinquish his position as Hon. Administrator of Toc H, and his resignation was accepted, with the greatest regret and with expressions of the warmest gratitude for his services, by the War Emergency Committee at its meeting on March 6. At the same time it was announced that W. J. Lake Lake would be prepared, if asked, to succeed him as Hon. Administrator, and the Committee unanimously decided upon his appointment. This takes effect immediately, and the Central Council will be asked to confirm it at its annual meeting on April 20.

Hubert Secretan has served on the staff of Toc H, in an honorary capacity, for thirteen years. He first took charge of its Schools Section, which he reorganised and put upon a much firmer basis. In 1935, when Peter Monie, the first Hon. Administrator, retired, Hubert was chosen as his successor. To the office which carries the highest responsibility in Toc H he brought great qualities both of head and heart, a trained and critical mind, but also a sympathy and personal friendship which has always commanded the loyalty and affection of those who have worked with him. All the men who are charged with leading Toc H, whether as members of the Central Executive, of the full-time staff at home or abroad or as voluntary officers in all parts of the world, have relied so much on Hubert's judgment and counted him so long as their friend that his sudden departure is very difficult for them to realise. He remains a fellow member, and we all hope that his voice will often still be heard in our councils. We wish him sincerely well in the vital national service in which he is now to take his part.

W. J. Lake Lake, a Foundation member, was from very early days the 'pivotal man' in Toc H South America. Without his faith and steady work in Buenos Aires Toc H in the Argentine would not have started or survived. Before he retired from business there two years ago he saw the Toc H work he had begun prosper and increase, and he had well earned the leisure at home to which he looked forward. Now, in our time of emergency, he comes back from the country to London, from retirement to very active service. We welcome his appointment as Hon. Administrator with confidence and most sincere thanks.

HENRY WILLINK.

THE MAIN RESOLUTION OF TOC H

The following, known as the "Main Resolution," was passed on December 16, 1922, and confirmed by the Central Councils of Toc H for 1923-24 and 1924-26:—

"Remembering with gratitude how God used the Old House to bring home to multitudes of men that behind the ebb and flow of things temporal stand the eternal realities, and to send them forth strengthened to fight at all costs for the setting up of His Kingdom upon earth; we pledge ourselves to strive:—

"To listen now and always for the voice of God;

"To know His Will revealed in Christ and to do it fearlessly, reckoning nothing of the world's opinion or its successes for ourselves or this our family;

and towards this end;

"To think fairly,

"To love widely,

"To witness humbly,

"To build bravely."

We have examined the above Balance Sheet with the Books and Records of the Corporation and have obtained all the information and explanations we have required. We report that, in our opinion, such Balance Sheet is properly drawn up so as to exhibit a true and correct view of the state of the Corporation's affairs, as at 31st October, 1939, according to the best of our information and the explanations given to us and as shown by the Books and Records of the Corporation.

LEGACIES

Legacies form a most valuable proportion of the income of many voluntary organisations, and to a limited extent Toc H has already benefited from this source. If the number of legacies could be increased the work of Toc H could be largely secured in perpetuity. The following Form of Bequest is recommended for incorporation in a Will.

Form of Bequest

I give unto TOC H INCORPORATED, the Registered Office of which is 47, Francis Street, London, S.W.1, the sum of.....Pounds Sterling, free of Duty. And I direct that the receipt of the Treasurer of the said Corporation shall be a sufficient discharge for the Legacy, which is to be applied for the general purposes of the said Corporation.

NOTE.—The will or codicil giving a Bequest must be signed by the Testator or Testatrix in the presence of two witnesses, who must be present at the same time, and must subscribe their names in his or her presence and in the presence of each other.

Friends who have already made their Wills are asked to consider making a simple Codicil leaving a bequest to Toc H. Friends and members of small means should feel that any bequest, however small, which they can make is of real value in the future of Toc H.

Legacies received

1921: Miss H. H. Tatlock, £50; 1927: The Trustees of the late Samuel John Tomkins, £250; 1928: Mrs. Dust (Sheffield), £250; 1929: Miss Cecilia Bramwell, £200; H. B. TOC H BUILDERS

Those friends who find themselves unable to take an active part in Toc H and yet wish to support the movement to the best of their ability, become TOC H BUILDERS, subscribing annually, quarterly or monthly, any amount they feel to be within their means. They are kept in touch with progress by receiving a copy of the TOC H JOURNAL monthly, if they so wish. A form of enrolment as a Toc H Builder will be supplied on application to any Area Office of Toc H or to the Registrar at Headquarters.

TO TOC H BUILDERS AND OTHER FRIENDS

The following shows a method by which an Annual Subscriber to Toc H Incorporated can increase the amount received annually by Toc H Incorporated without any additional expense to himself, and, if he is liable to Sur-Tax, with actual financial advantage to himself.

The additional money accruing to Toc H Incorporated is paid to them by the Inland Revenue Authorities, being a refund of the Income Tax received by them from the subscriber on the portion of his general taxed income from which he pays the subscription; the financial advantage to a subscriber liable to Sur-Tax is that such subscriber is allowed to deduct the amount of his gross annual subscription to Toc H Incorporated from his income for Sur-Tax purposes.

In order to obtain these advantages it is necessary for the subscriber to enter into a legally binding agreement with Toc H Incorporated to pay his annual subscription for a period of at least seven years or during his lifetime (whichever is the shorter period).

A subscriber contributing, say, £10 per annum to Toc H Incorporated, would complete the agreement by undertaking to pay annually such sum as after deduction of Income Tax at the standard rate would leave the nett sum of £10. The subscriber would then pay to Toc H Incorporated each year during the period of the agreement a sum of £10, which, while Income Tax is at the rate of 7s. 6d. in the £, would be regarded as a gross sum of £16 (Income Tax on £16 being £6).

The effect of entering into the agreement would be:—

- (1) The subscriber would pay to Toc H Incorporated each year the sum of £10, so that if he is already subscribing that sum there need be no alteration in the amount of his subscription.
- (2) Toc H Incorporated would, in due course, claim repayment from the Inland Revenue of the Income Tax on his subscription, i.e., £6.
- (3) Toc H Incorporated would benefit by a total amount of £16, and the subscriber would be recorded as a contributor of this amount.
- (4) If the subscriber were liable to Sur-Tax, he would be entitled to a deduction of £16 from the amount on which he was liable to pay Sur-Tax.

Banker's Order Form on the reverse.

The following table shows the effect of the arrangement in the case of subscriptions of varying amounts:—

(1) Amount of Subscription paid to Toc H Incorporated by the subscriber.	(2) Income Tax Recoverable by Toc H Incorporated.	(3) Gross Amount by which Toc H Incorporated benefits.
1 0 0	0 12 0	1 12 0
2 0 0	1 4 0	3 4 0
5 0 0	3 0 0	8 0 0
10 0 0	6 0 0	16 0 0
25 0 0	15 0 0	40 0 0

Sur-Tax payers may deduct the amount shown in Column 3 in their returns of total income.

The FORM OF COVENANT is printed on the opposite page. Copies can also be obtained from the Registrar of Toc H Incorporated, who will be pleased to furnish any additional information that subscribers may require. He will also, if desired, arrange for the stamping of agreements at Somerset House.

NOTE.—In the rare event of Income Tax on a subscription being more than the total Income Tax suffered by him in any year, a subscriber would be required to account for the excess to the Inland Revenue. In certain other cases, where a subscriber's sole source of income is a salary, there might be a small reduction in the amount of his earned income relief. Except in these special cases, the execution of a seven-year covenant does not involve a subscriber in any additional liability to Income Tax.

NOTES AS TO COMPLETION OF AGREEMENT.

1. The term of seven years commences from the date of signature.
2. The directions for filling in the dates at (a) and (b) should be carefully observed.
3. Signature should be placed where indicated, and the witness should sign, etc. in the spaces provided.
4. If the seven annual payments are to be made under Bankers' Order the date at (a) should be furnished to the Bank.
5. The agreement duly completed as above should be forwarded to the Registrar of Toc H Incorporated as soon as signed, in order that it may be stamped within the allotted time.

IMPORTANT:—*(a) The date for the first payment should be later than the date at † (b).
†(b) Insert the actual date of signing.

To Messrs. Bankers.

ENDOWED MEMORIAL CHAPLAINCIES

Certain endowments have been given to Toc H from time to time to establish, in whole or in part, ten Anglican Chaplaincies. There is the Chaplaincy, which is to be named after Philip Clayton, given by Miss A. M. Alexander; the Oswin Creighton Chaplaincy, given by Miss Jean Alexander. Mrs. Tetley gave the Henry Tetley Chaplaincy and the Herbert Fleming Chaplaincy. There is the Hull Chaplaincy given by Colonel W. H. Carver; the William Grimble Groves Chaplaincy, given by his son, H. Leigh Groves; the Murray Smith Chaplaincy, given by Mrs. Reginald Smith and her sisters, and the Sibell Mary Grosvenor Chaplaincy, given by the Duke of Westminster. In addition there will be the Hewitt Chaplaincy, financed by a gift of land by Miss Hewitt, to which an appointment will be made as soon as the income suffices.

For oversea work there is the Edwin Wright Chaplaincy (South Australia), given anonymously, and the Harry Ellison Chaplaincy, given by his relations and friends.

Besides these, part of the income derived from the Toc H All Hallows Trust is used to provide the Toc H All Hallows Chaplaincy. The Derby Chaplaincy was made possible by certain substantial gifts, but a further £7,000 is required to ensure the permanency of this post.

LIST OF SUBSCRIBERS: A NOTE

For the first time in the history of Toc H we are omitting this year the detailed list of the names of those who have so generously supported the movement as donors and builders. This step has not been taken lightly. We trust that none of our subscribers will think that it implies any lack of gratitude to those who have stood by us or any failure to realize our debt to them.

We believe that, could we consult them, they would be the first to wish that we should take this course. By so doing we not only save for the immediate war needs of Toc H the considerable cost of setting up and printing a list which now runs, we are happy to say, to no less than 23 pages of close type, but we also, with the aid of other omissions, reduce the total size of the report, and consequently the paper required for it, by about half. We believe that this saving of paper is one which in present conditions ought to be made, and that our action will be generally approved.

MEMBERS IN THE SERVICES

At Home and Abroad: Members should get in touch with the nearest Toc H unit. When in doubt, write to the Hon. Secretary for the Services, 47, Francis Street, London, S.W.1, to whom should be sent notice of members going abroad or returning home.

TOC H LEAGUE OF WOMEN HELPERS

The Toc H League of Women Helpers, founded in 1922, is organised on very similar lines to Toc H, shares the same spirit and is pledged to the same aims. It is a sister society, with its own constitution and government, working alongside Toc H at home and overseas; its membership and its service is among women as that of Toc H is among men. Its patroness is Her Majesty the Queen. All information can be obtained from the General Secretary, L.W.H., Crutched Friars House, London, E.C.3.
